The BTA is the UK's only national society for pictorial-based collecting: thematic, open and postcards. Our members collect many different themes, using a wide variety of materials both philatelic and non-philatelic.

Through regular meetings, a quarterly magazine and close liaison with major philatelic organisations, the BTA seeks to promote pictorial collecting to new audiences and increase understanding.

As well as regular events, members receive a number of exclusive benefits and services which make membership rewarding and enjoyable.
