BRITISH THEMATIC ASSOCIATION

Founded 1984

The UK's National Association for
Theme - Based Philately
& Postcard Collecting

www.britishthematic.org.uk/

Join the British Thematic Association

The BTA is the UK's only national society for theme-based philatelists and postcard collectors. This includes "Open" collectors who include non-philatelic material and ephemera in their collections.

Through regular meetings, a quarterly magazine and close liaison with major philatelic organisations, the BTA seeks to promote theme-based philately and postcard collecting to new audiences and increase understanding.

As well as regular events, members receive a number of exclusive benefits and services which make membership rewarding and enjoyable.

Exclusive Benefits

- THEMESCENE, the BTA's quarterly magazine, free to members
- Regular meetings and events with displays and guest speakers
- Informative theme-based workshops on collecting & exhibiting run by philatelic experts
- ThemeConnect: Get in touch with members who collect your theme - the BTA's database has every conceivable theme categorised
- Receive advice from leading collectors and exhibitors on your collection or exhibit
- Meet new friends, discover new things and get involved with an active and friendly society
